

RICHMOND COUNTY
COURT OF ORDINARY
1860

An early fireproof building constructed to safeguard Richmond County's records

Placed by the
Reverend Pierre Robert Chapter
National Society
Colonial Dames XVII Century
2023

AUGUSTA
JEWISH MUSEUM

CONGREGATION CHILDREN OF ISRAEL
1869-1950

Georgia's oldest building constructed as a synagogue

Placed by the
Reverend Pierre Robert Chapter
National Society
Colonial Dames XVII Century
2023

Historic Marker Installation January 22, 2023 at 2 PM

525 Telfair St. Augusta, GA 30901

Join us as we dedicate the markers and view the preview of the AJM Oral History Project.

The markers have been donated by the Reverend Pierre Robert Chapter of Colonial Dames 17th Century. To uphold and continue the values and ideals of their ancestors, the work of Colonial Dames 17th Century is dedicated to the preservation of historic sites and records, promotion of heraldry and coats of arms, and support of charitable projects and education.

The AJM Stories

Remembering Our
Place in History

CSRA Jewish Contributions

Congregations, Careers, and Commerce

Jewish Life and Traditions

Faith, Family, and Service

Remembering the Holocaust

Tolerance and Human Rights

Israel the Land and its People

Homeland and Holyland

JOY IN TELLING ONE'S STORY

Pictured: Dorothy Daitch
of Augusta, GA

